

- Able to work constructively as part of a team and to understand school roles and responsibilities and own position within these
- Able to identify own training and development needs and co-operate with means to address them

Equalities

- To be able to demonstrate a commitment to the principles of Equalities and to be able to carry out duties in accordance with the Council's Equalities Policy.