

Teacher of Computing

We are looking to appoint an enthusiastic, dynamic and committed teacher of Computing.
Pay Scale: MTPS/UPS (placed on scale dependent on experience).

Located on the outskirts of Brighton, Patcham High is vibrant, proud and successful and is known for its innovative approach and values CPD very highly. We have an unshakeable faith in the power of high-quality teaching and want the very best for all our students.

Computing is taught to years 7, 8 and 9 as discrete one hour a week lessons. Computer Science being taught separately by specialists at Key Stage 4. The successful applicant would be expected to teach both key stages. The school is ambitious for the department to actively promote trips and extra-curricular activities. The successful applicant will demonstrate a willingness to help grow the extracurricular activities available to our students and demonstrate a passion for Computing.

The successful candidate will:

- be an outstanding teacher;
- be passionate about their subject and committed to making Computing an accessible, exciting and fun subject for all our students;
- have outstanding interpersonal skills;
- be able to contribute to the growth of the department;
- be innovative, dynamic and forward-looking;
- be committed to high quality teaching and learning for students of all abilities;
- be a team player.

In joining Patcham High, you will find a creative and supportive culture within a school that is hugely aspirational. We place great importance on positive relationships, teamwork and a 'can do attitude'. We believe that we are at the cutting edge and, with exciting challenges ahead, this is a brilliant time to join the school.

We welcome applications from colleagues who are determined to make a difference.

To apply please download the application form from the school's website
