

Design Technology Technician

Patcham High School is looking to appoint a Technology Technician to provide support to staff and students within our vibrant Design and Technology Department.

Required to start as soon as possible, this is a part time role working term time only (45.05 weeks per year), the hours are 23.32 hours per week with working days to be agreed with line manager. The salary for this role is paid on the LGA Pay Scale 3, point 7 -8. Full time salary £22,369 - £22,777. Actual pro rata salary is £12,214.20 per annum. We are open to hiring on a job share basis.

The successful candidate will help to prepare resources for the students to use in the workshops during class time – predominantly wood, but also other materials. You will also be required to help students operate machinery and to be responsible for the maintenance of equipment. Ideally candidates will have experience in this field, but training can be provided if required. A detailed job description and person specification is attached.

The successful candidate will:

- Have a passion for working with young people;
- Have knowledge and experience of working with resistant materials;
- Have outstanding interpersonal skills;
- Be committed to making Design and Technology an exciting subject for our students.

If you enjoy a challenge and are interested in the post, please download an application pack available on our school's website <http://www.patchamhigh.brighton-hove.sch.uk/school-information-2/vacancies/> Where possible, please email your completed application form to Elise Holmes eholmes@patchamhigh.org.uk .
